ARROWBEAR MUSIC CAMP

26TH YEAR

AUGUST 13 to 27, 1967

EDITORIAL

Our second quarter of a century at Arrowbear Music Camp began this summer - our 26th season of serving musical youth. Over 15,000 young talents have been enrolled, an impressive record especially because the intimacy of a "family style" camp has been maintained.

The final session of the summer was particularly enriching because 75% of all in attendance have been in camp before. The friendliness in your personalities was commendable and your joy of working diligently with your music was so outstanding.

You have served the art of music well. Now continue in your musical studies with enthusiasm. May your two weeks at Arrowbear Music Camp be an inspiration for even greater accomplishments.

All of us on the staff wish you a rich and rewarding 1967-1968 school year.

Fred Ohlendorf
CAMP DIRECTOR

LIFE AT CAMP

Life at camp is so much fun
Especially today with all the sun.
The thunder and lightning
it seems to me -
Give us a feeling of security -
The hassle of moving our belongings around adds to the peace, as we make no sound (huh!).
There aren't enough problems up here at large -
So we also enjoy daily
numblings from Sarge!
Even with our weather so fair -
We still love life at Arrowbear.

- The Beak

THE MOUNTAINLAND

Why is it that the sun and sky,
The tall green trees and the clouds floating by
Have a beauty equaled nowhere but in
This, the mountainland?
What makes one feel, whether sad
or gay,
That every different, passing day
Brings one closer to man and God in
This, the mountainland?

MUSIC EDUCATOR BEGINS 2nd QUARTER CENTURY OF CAMP

MR. O. DISCOVERS FOUNT OF YOUTH

At a recent interview, here in the San Bernardino Mountains, Mr. Fred Ohlendorf aptly demonstrated his methods of keeping fit and happy. This surprising figure of a man, listed in Who's Who of the West, has surrounded himself with music, laughter, and, most important, youth. Ever since his education at Northwestern University and USC., he has devoted his energies to teaching the young people of Southern California the joys of music. He is Supervisor of Music in the Long Beach Unified School District and Director of the All City Orchestras. He has served as President of CMEA and on the Board of Directors of MENC. This past year, he organized the Arrowbear Honor Orchestra and conducted its performance in Las Vegas. Last summer he witnessed the celebration of the 25th anniversary of his music camp, and, from all outward signs, he appears to be well-launched toward the 50th year fete.

MRS. O. TYPES LAST PAPER

When this newspaper goes to press Mrs. O. will have completed a summer's worth of hard work. Single-handedly, she has typed up the stencils of the camp papers each session. This monumental task is in addition to her regular jobs as camp treasurer, secretary, bookkeeper, and mother. Edna Ohlendorf started her training for this hectic schedule unconsciously at USC where she majored in music (piano). She is a member of MTAC and MU PHI EPSILON (yay sis!). Mrs. O's great lady assets were recently recognized in Who's Who of American Women. Aside from being lovable, Mother Ohlendorf is the biggest tease in camp!

FANS THRILL IN MR. BURGER'S AUTO

Joe Burger, assistant camp director, recently conducted another successful series of tours in his red convertible, here at lovely Arrowbear Lake. Mr. Burger came to Long Beach in 1953 after graduating from Southwest Missouri State College. He has long been associated with the Long Beach School System and the Arrowbear Staff. This past year Mr. Burger conducted the LB All City Elementary Orchestra and he also holds a first violin position in the Long Beach Symphony. Mr. Burger and his car have become so famous that songs are being sung in their honor. What rhymes with car?

ENDO FAMILY CONDUCTS

"Endo" is sort of a magic name around Arrowbear. Thirteen summers ago, Akira Endo appeared upon the scene as a camper. He returned each year gradually working his way up through counselor to staff. Mr. Endo's wintertime activities have been even more impressive. He graduated from Wilson High and earned his Master of Music from USC. He is a member of the Pacific Quartet and two year director of the Long Beach Symphony. These jobs are only extra to his regular position as conductor and teacher at LBCC. In addition, he found time to start a family, the results of which can be seen toddling around camp under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Susan Endo (also a former camper and counselor). Stephanie Tamikō and Gregory Tadashi give all signs of following in their musical parents' footsteps.

!!!FLASH!!!

We have just heard that Mr. 'O' was selected "Lutheran Man Of The Year" by the Lutheran Businessmen's Association of Long Beach. The award will be presented at a dinner meeting in October. CONGRATULATIONS!!! Mr. 'O'.

"PAPA" PAPPONE PESTERS PIPERS

Michael A. Pappone, first week conductor of the band this session, is spending his first season at Arrowbear. In his "Edward G. Robinson" disguise, Mr. Pappone led the band through brilliant maneuvers up to a climactic concert aboard the Lake Arrowhead Barge, Sunday evening. "Papa" received his B.S. from Minneapolis University and Master in Music Education from IBSC. He taught elementary school music in Minnesota before coming to California. After four years at Franklin Jr. High in Long Beach, Mr. Pappone moved to Stanford Jr. High, where he virtually "opened" the music department. For the past eleven years he has been at Millikan High directing the very outstanding band and orchestra there. Along with all this obvious conducting talent, Mr. "Pony" trains swimming batons!! There are four Pappone offsprings - one of them is fluting this session.

SAWHILL CONDUCTS SOGGY BAND

The rain poured down. "Our music's soaked," the campers cried. "Just another page", pleaded Clarence Sawhill, that dynamic director from UCLA. A hard worker and a fantastic personality, Mr. Sawhill has been teaching bands for the past 37 years throughout the United States, Canada, Europe, and Japan. Mr. Sawhill spends his summers visiting U. S. music camps and festivals. We look forward to his arrival at each summer's end here at AMC. The staff cabin virtually rocks when the exuberant Mr. and Mrs. Sawhill make the scene and the musical life in camp certainly perks up.

"SARGE" TRIPS OUT

Mrs. Frances Harding, assistant camp director, teacher, and friend, recently returned from a successful tour of the Orient. She brought back the same joyous spirit for Music Appreciation and keen eye for inspection. Sarge is a Long Beachian, teacher at Stephens Jr. High, and an excellent bassoonist. In the past fifteen years as staff member, Mrs Harding has picked up a number of handy tricks for encouraging and controlling campers and staff. Her latest involves ice cubes and sleepless counselors. Her after taps activities are un-canny.

"BABY" LOSCHEN HELPS CAMP RUN SMOOTHLY

Mrs. Jane Loschen, flutist and bunk-inspector, is with us for her first summer of duty. She hails from the University of Illinois and USC, where she was affiliated with SAI (arg!). Mrs. Loschen taught for ten years in public schools and was three years on the staff at "another" music camp in Interlochen before retiring to private flute-teach and wife-it for her Accounting Prof at USC. Mrs. Loschen prides herself on being the original Arrowbear fence-sitter. We tend to believe that she favors "upstairs", "the hand that feeds", and all that.

*TYNDALL PRESCRIBES COFFEE

Mrs. Jean Tyndall, camp nurse, has gained a reputation for watering posies and drinking coffee. She could be called "wet nurse". Mrs. Tyndall has an impressive background of education at State U. of Iowa and LBSC. She worked as a nurse at LB Community Hospital for 7 years and has school-nursed in Long Beach for 3 years. Mrs. Tyndall's hobbies are sewing, raising four children, and music. Her two shadows around camp are son, Chris, and his friend, David. We are happy to report that this year we have two hose nozzles available to Mrs. Tyndall's green thumb, and the rest of her busy hands.

CAROLE HELPS MOMMY

Recently deserted by a Korea-bound army husband, Carole (Ohlendorf) Dockstader has resigned herself to helping out Mom in the office while keeping an eye on Cat. We won't count all the years Carole has spent as camper and counselor, or all the orchestras she has fluted in. It will suffice to say she is an excellent musician as well as a boisterous giggler.

LOCAL NEWS

RICK REIGNS IN KITCHEN

Rick Ohlendorf, celebrated chef in the AMC kitchen, is also the possessor of a creative nature. He did a beautiful job of lighting the Arrowhead Barge. He is interested in photography and last year, in industrial drawing, Rick designed and made up all the covers for the camp paper. A beautiful job - clap, clap! Rick will graduate from LBSC in 3 semesters as a Music Major. He's a wonder. Who else would stand over a hot stove to fry 190 individual eggs?

AL INSISTS "THEY'LL EAT IT".

New in the kitchen this summer is Al "Banana"Ewing. He condescended to aid Rick as exalted cook at AMC. Al came from Decatur, Georgia, to settle in Long Beach where he attends LBSC. His major is material engineering and his minor is music (he plays the C Scale on the piano). A member of the National Guard, Al will leave in September for his 5 month stay of duty quelling riots. Oh yeah?

LINCOLN MAKES MEDICAL HISTORY IN ANTISEPTIC KITCHEN

With a scalpel in one hand and spoon in the other, Miss Carole Lincoln faces each day as Arrowbear's only nursing-cook. Carole will graduate next year from Cal. State LA and is currently student nursing at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. In her "spare time" Miss Lincoln fiddles around on the violin. Aside from changing her last name, Carole's biggest goal in life is to return to AMC as camp nurse. She'll soon be able to run the place single-handed, having been counselor 3 years before working as cook. Carole is being particularly good about missing "someone".

FRANCIA RETURNS TO SCENE OF CRIME

Miss Francia Harding was welcomed back as fourth chef in Arrowbear's gourmet kitchen with open arms. Things seem to perk up in her presence. Even the lettuce isn't as limp. Francia is a UCLA graduate, bass clarinetist, geographer, and teacher. When she's not touring with her mother or knitting, Francia sits around complaining about the noisy staff.

NAN RUNS (?) SNACK BAR

Miss Nancy Louise Daugherty, kitchen visitor and dish washer, recently split eardrums with resounding yelps of joy. She received her acceptance to UCLA, much to the relief of her family. Nan graduated from Wilson High last year. She plays 'cello, French horn, glockenspiel, piano, and sings. She was a member of almost every musical activity at Wilson and all the Honor Orchestras she could fit into her busy schedule. In her copious spare time Nancy swims, spits pool water, bakes banana delicacies, and craves attention.

SOCIETY SECTION

B. WALTON TO HEAD

World traveler and sophisticate, Bob (Spooks) Walton, arrived this month for an extended vacation. Due to his outstanding personal qualities and intensive training at LBCC, Mr. Walton was asked to accept the honorary position of Head Counselor. He is now enjoying a leisurely stay in the luxurious Trolley. In September, Bob will journey to Santa Cruz where he'll major in English and Food. Mr. Walton is an excellent trombonist. He wields a pretty mean broom handle also.

"BAEZ" HARDACRE ROCKS OUT IN DINING HALL

Judy (Jud) Hardacre, the epitome of Arrowbear-Fun, is the spark of the lunch-time sings. Jud is a Wilson High graduate, Furjanick Music Scholarship winner, and Most Deserving Student (at least the PTA thought so). Miss Hardacre sang in A Capella Choir, Sr. Girls Choir, Girls Quartet, Jr. Girls Glee, and Madrigals at Wilson. She also sings in the shower and the rain and plays a shake-up of a tambourine. Jud will attend LBSC next year and major in Naval Destroyers.

COWBOY BOB HERE FOR THE LAST ROUNDUP

You can't miss him around camp. Bob Bachle is definitely here, complete with jump suit and battered hat. Bob is a Millikan and LBCC graduate. He will attend LBSC next year as a music major. Although it seems impossible this big fellow can really make sound on such a tiny instrument as the viola. This is Bob's first session as a counselor but he has been to a few past work camps - and he certainly can do that well. Around camp we find him arranging chairs, chopping trees, and just about any other job that needs a strong arm and a friendly grin. Would you believe he spent the first part of the summer on his grandparents' farm in Texas? I thought so!!

BLUE JAY PERCHES ON PIANO BENCH

Dressed in brilliant blue swim trunks, matching parka, and a breath-taking tan, counselor Jay Kohorn looks the height of Arrowbear fashion. To elaborate on all of Jay's great abilities would fill another "Note" so we only mention that he is a Regent Scholar at UCLA, a junior majoring in music (piano), coaching opera at the University, teaching piano, and accompanying everybody's grandmother in recitals and contests. It's amazing how one with such talents can be so cuddly and sweet.

CURTIS JOINS USC RANKS

Not meaning to cast a note of prejudice upon this illustrious journal, the editors would like to announce that Miss Linda Curtis, first year counselor, will soon embark upon her next phase of musical education at the University of Southern California. Miss Curtis graduated with honors from Millikan High in LB and was awarded an orchestra grant to continue her studies on violin and flute. When she's not involved in one orchestra or another, Linda spends her time being generally helpful.

JODY TURNS CAMP ARTIST

Two-year counselor, Jody Lowry, scribbled madly away this session on posters and cartoons. Jody is a junior at the University of the Pacific at Stockton and a Fine Arts Major. She hopes to teach on the elementary school level. Our only regret is that our piggy-back riding friend had to leave us so early in the session.

McKENZIE INSPIRES GHOST STORIES!!!!

Miss Peggy McKenzie, noted entomologist (bug collector) has proven a worthy, if unconscious, inspiration for some tall yarns. This leggy counselor plays 'cello, harp, piano, and has some of the most beautiful smiles around. She has attended Pitzer College, LBCC, and is destined for parts unsure-of next year. Peggy enjoys snow-skiing and band parties. Miss McKenzie is lucky to be here at Camp Arrowbug; the surroundings are teeming with likely game (just insects?).

MOTHER MARTHA IS SISTER?

Martha (Muth-Muth) Newman returned as third-year counselor, a shadow of her former self. The spirit, however, is undimmed and you can see and hear her bubbling all over camp. Martha has college-hopped from UCLA to Cerritos J.C. to LBCC and will soon enter LBSC. She is a Speech-English major and on the speech team at LBCC next semester. Miss Newman is currently in training for the diving Olympics but will definitely have to curtail certain habits to make the team. She also eats crackers in bed, Momma says!

SANFORD HIT AS DUMMY

Miss Patsy Sanford is a counselor of extraordinary good nature. She not only is a fireball worker and every camper's friend, but she comes from a 'delicious' family. Pert Pat attends Whitman College in Walla Walla, Washington, where she is Vice Pres. of Spurs, a member of the Judicial Counsel, and clarinetist in the Walla Walla Symphony. Miss Sanford recently delighted audiences in her role as a rubber-soled wonder. Uh-Wah!

plates, sings art songs, enjoys being 'a problem', studies astronomy and craves bananas. During her last astronomical study, she 'accidentally' tripped up Sarge. They said it couldn't be done, but it can! J.H.A.E.

M. WALTON TURNS ZHIVAGO

Marty Walton has performed a superhuman feat. Several, in fact, but the most outstanding is his split personality trick. Marty manages to be an able-bodied kitchen slave and at the same time provide loving guidance as a counselor. Marty plays clarinet in any orchestra available. He graduated from Millikan High last year and will attend LBCC in the fall. Mr. Walton is vaguely interested in geography. Funny how much Marty enjoys kitchen work these days?

HAMMER HAL STRIKES AGAIN

Give him a hammer, nail, and a hunk of wood and Hal Yorke might even build you a doll house. Besides being official counselor-carpenter, Hal is a Regent Scholar at UCLA, a physics major, and a sax and clarinetist. He attributes his rugged good looks to three years of high school varsity wrestling and tennis, and regular workouts at the AMC pool and gym.

MARTY, OUR WITTY EDITOR

Generally, Marty Daugherty has written all of the articles, but this time the staff agreed that her usual, humble article on herself wasn't good enough, so, lovingly, we submitted this: At the beginning of the summer, our witty editor set out to make this the best paper ever. This she has done without a doubt. Her golden throat being a little tarnished during Choral Session, she's recently bounded back to become the 'better half' of the dynamic duo at meal-times. She is also our able-bodied lifeguard.

Marty graduated from Wilson High in Long Beach and is currently a Sophomore at USC (belongs to Mu Phi Epsilon, too, Hello, Sis (E.O.)), and is currently, also, ~~is~~ caught in a feud between her viola and voice teachers. (She does both beautifully.) In her spare time, Marty scrapes

ENDO ENTERTAINS

It has become tradition to eagerly anticipate the yearly camp recital of Akira Endo, our virtuoso violinist as well as conductor. Friday evening, then, was enthusiastically awaited. Mr. Endo chose to perform a rather different program. We heard "Spanish Dance" by De Falla, "Spanish Dances" numbers 5 and 6, by Sarasate, and Paganini's "Concerto No. 1". There are few words that would adequately describe the impressions Mr. Endo's music leaves with us. Perhaps the most appropriate is "inspirational". Another highlight of the program was the able accompanying of Jay Kohorn. We are grateful to them both for an exciting evening of great music.

ARROWBEAR MUSIC CAMP AT ARROWHEAD

After a hectic day of preparations and hard work, the results were breath-taking: night falling, the western sky edged with golden pink, regal pine trees, and a full yellow moon rising on Lake Arrowhead. In the midst of this beautiful setting, on a floating platform, performed the Arrowbear Music Camp Orchestra and Band. An appreciative audience settled on the sandy beach to hear our young musicians. With all the headache and tears of transportation of 130 campers, their instruments, chairs, stands, lights, not to mention dinner, it was certainly gratifying to hear the sound of music and know that this night would be remembered.

LIONS CLUB DINNER - ROARING SUCCESS

It was a lot of work and not without disappointments, but Lions Club Day finally ended successfully. As you may remember, the scheduled concert was called off because of a slight downpour. The kitchen panicked when the electricity went off in the early evening. What to do about melting sherbet? But Mother Nature and the mountain electricians finally came through and the dinner got successfully under way. Our lovely, bustling, camper-hostesses served a delicious meal to the hungry guests while entertainment was provided by other talented campers and the counseling staff. A highlight of this part of the program was "Variations on a Kitchen Sink" ably performed by the Kitchen Symphony and led by Chef Sawhill. It was rumored that they were just "potting around".

At the signal from Sarge the all-camp choir filed orderly in and sang beautifully. The evening was completed with a musicale of serious works performed by campers and staff. The Lions went home after a happy time and we Arrowbearites crowded into the dining hall to feast on their "left-overs".

AMC HONORED BY JAPANESE VISITORS

Two high school students and a teacher from Yokkaichi, Japan, spent last month in Long Beach as a part of the Sister City Program. During their month of tours, Mikio Takigawa, Yumiko Yagi, and Mr. Kenji Nishii found time to visit us here at Arrowbear Music Camp. They sat in on classes and rehearsals and even slept in our famous dorms. It is doubtful, however, that their enjoyment excelled ours. Mr. Nishii spoke to the assembled campers about Japanese schools and answered questions. He also presented examples of Japanese songs and we all joined in, led by the pretty soprano voice of Yumiko. Next year two high school students and one teacher from Long Beach will visit Yokkaichi. Perhaps one of our campers will make the exciting journey?

FOUR CAMPERS HONORED

Each week at AMC, one boy and one girl are selected by the counselors and staff as best campers. The chosen ones are then treated to a free gourmet dinner given by Fabulous Lloyds of Running Springs. This session there were four lucky winners.

The first week Miss Sue Hansen and Mr. Charles Aubin made the coveted journey. Miss Hansen chose the combination steak and lobster plate, while Mr. Aubin dined on delectable frogs legs (seriously!). When asked their impressions on being selected Best Camper, Charles said, "I thought there was some mistake!" Susan merely split the air with a scream of delight.

This week, the winners were Miss Sue Green and Mr. Jeff Skorneck. Sue "couldn't believe it" and Jeff said, "Judging by the time I usually wake up in the morning, I didn't see how they could chose me". Both of these lucky campers enjoyed dinners of top sirloin steak.

We're proud of all our campers. Keep up the good work and attitudes and perhaps you'll go to Lloyds next summer.

SPORTS

SPORTING FUN - HANKY PANKY PATROL

Not new to sports fans, but of constant wide-appeal, is the gentle sport of Hanky Panky Patrol. The game requires at least 4 players, two counselors and two campers. The campers begin by leaving the Saturday nite dance and wandering away together, remaining inside the boundaries of the camp. The counselors then leave the kitchen with their sport equipment, flashlights, and ferret out the hiding team. The winners of the game are always the counselors. The losers return to the dance, where other teams are forming for a new match.

AQUATIC HIGHLIGHTS

The pool is swimming with news! Not all of it is good, however. Our beloved and much bounced-upon diving board has suffered a rather severe injury called, in medical terms, a crack. Due to this weakness of constitution, diving from Board has been considerably restricted.

A new addition to the pool area is now in use. Non-swimming bathing beauties have, in the past, been forced to lie in the aftermath of the dive-bombing crowd. Now they may pose in comfort on the new sun-decks overlooking the pool.

CAMPERS CAVORT

We don't spend all our time in rehearsals, music appreciation, ensembles, and theory classes; it just seems like it! Every once in a while we put down the stools and bull whips, smash the kids into a cattle truck, and cart them to a recreational facility. This session we've visited Lake Arrowhead, Blue Jay for ice-skating, Green Valley for horse-back riding, Santa's Village, Keller Peak for climbing, and Snow Valley for sitting in ski-lift chairs. Whoopee!! We also have two dances a week, not to mention table games, constant ping pong, shuffleboard, and volley ball games. In-between times we practice a little.

TOURNAMENTS BOUNCE ALONG

Hal Yorke, Athletic Director here at AMC, has organized volley ball and ping pong tournaments. All those co-ordinated and strong enough to participate have been urged to exhibit their abilities. The less active may gather at the sidelines and ruin their vocal chords by cheering enthusiastically. Winners of these tournaments will receive scraped knees and sore muscles.

PERSONALS:

Is a French Horn anything like an Arrowbear antler, Rick Hill?

Keep your hand where it belongs,
Randall Jones.

You always bet on sure things, don't you, Lowell "Zipper" Noel?

We hate to be Snoopy, Dean Prosser, but is that doll yours or L.N.'s?

To Karen Tkaczyk - "Oh darn, I blew it again". Sorry Karen, no pun intended. --M.N.

Congrats, Ginni Gee! No broken bones
yet! --M.N.

To Anne Sharrar: How does it feel to be a ½ breed?..and a clumsy one at that!..-M.N.

To Dave Collins: I know where your flashlight is. (The Yeti)

-15 To Dave Partridge: Why don't you leave Vizzard alone? He's delicate!!
