AN ANNOTATED DIARY

ARROWBEAR MUSIC CAMP

29TH YEAR

August 6 to 16, 1970

=====

Dear Diary,

For the next ten days we shall see How life at Music Camp can be I've heard from friends it's lots of fun
But I'm not sure just how it's done

The camp director's an inspiring man
He works for young people all he can This Music Camp is part of that plan
And we are all part of his clan

Back in 1942 when the first session of Arrowbear Music Camp was held, the physical facilities were entirely different. When former campers see our camp today, they are amazed over the change.

One feature of Arrowbear has not changed - it is the friendliness of our campers. These twenty nine years have brought young musical talents who have enjoyed the intimacy and friendliness which have made camp unique.

With your attendance at this session, you too have become a part of the large family of Arrowbearites. May you go home greatly inspired to greater accomplishments in our great art - Music. And may you have many happy memories of the past ten days.

Regardless of where life may take you, we want you to know that our interest in you is a lasting one. You gave us a great session and we are deeply grateful.

Our Very Best Wishes Always,

Fred Ohlenborg
Camp Director

Dear Diary Aug. 6th

Today I arrived at Arrowbear
All those people from who knows where I came by bus; was I a fool
But how'd I know it wasn't cool

Off the bus and to the table
To register and get my label
I went to the nurse and she checked my head
Then a counselor took me down to my bed

I looked around and found a bunk
And then deposited all my junk
I sat around and waited for dinner
Then they gave us a real winner

PROVERB: If you can tickle yourself you can laugh whenever you want to.

I think they call it a theory test
I tried my hardest to do my best
But how do you feel when you don't know a thing
All I came to do is sing

Then I really blew my mind
I had to try out, and I was last in line
I shook so bad it wasn't funny
Then a voice said "It's your turn honey"

I walked right in and there they sat
I sang for them and that was that Boy! Am I glad that's all over
But I don't know if I'll ever recover

I was off to bed and very sleepy
We had little time and that was creepy
In fifteen minutes; lights out and taps blew
And I wasn't ready; I wasn't through

Dear Diary August 7
I dressed in the dark
And all at once hark
The next thing I knew Reveille blew.

I dashed to the head
Then made my bed
The breakfast bell rang
And I was off with a bang.

After breakfast was through Our dorm inspection was due
We cleaned and cleaned to make things spotless
But knew that eagle-eye Sarge would find spiderwebs, doubtless

Up to flag raising when you hear the call K.P.'s announced and some campers bawl
The daily schedule is reviewed Then to rehearsal where singing's pursued.

After rehearsal we had a break
I had K.P. so we had to rake.
Music appreciation was our next treat
We heard a baroque trio that was really neat.

Back to choir with the whole group
We sing and sing until we're pooped
The lunch time bell is a welcome sign
But I wish we didn't have to wait in line.

The counselors lead singing after lunch
They all come on stage - the entire bunch It's lots of fun but our voices need care
Then we close with a final prayer

Camp Motto

and the right attitude"

BAROQUE
Trio Sonata in E Flat
by Handel
Rick Ohlendorf, oboe
Carole Dockstader, flute
Dennis Dockstader, harpsichord
Steve Fraser, 'cello

It's down to our bunks for a needed rest
To family and friends we write our best After rest we have music theory
We learn about scales until we're weary

We go to the place our ensemble meets
We find our group and take our seats
We meet in small groups and make beautiful sounds
We haven't much time to make them resound

In the afternoon we all have free time
You can swim at the pool or take a climb Boys' Ping Pong Champion
You can horseback ride or play ping pong Alan Brown
Your time is your own 'til the dinner gong.

Today was a counselor's birthday, I hear
She has it up here every year Kathie Kohorn is her name
And toilet paper is her game Girls's Ping Pong Champion
Becky Edles

After dinner another rehearsal
But this time we have a conductor reversal All Camp Champ
We went to the court to choose our table Alan Brown Then we played a word unscramble

We had a campfire after that We sang loads of songs while we sat We made new friends all the while
And it made me feel good and smile

Will I make it - it's such a worry After taps I climbed in bed
I listened as the counselor read.

Dear Diary August 8th

We started the day in the same old way
First came work and then came play

Appreciation time came around
And we heard a brand new sound Rick Ohlendorf decided to play us his oboe and Jay accompanied his really great solo

CLASSICAL

Quartet for oboe and strings (K 370) Mozart

After lunch we sang some more
But this time new ones - not the same as before We learned to sing the Arrowbear Song
We listened once and then sang along

Rick Ohlendorf, oboe
Jay Kohorn, piano (reduction)
The Arrowbear Song
We love life at Arrow-bear,

This afternoon we stayed in camp
I was glad, I felt like a tramp
I took a shower and felt lots better Then I sat and wrote a letter

Nights are cool and days are fair,
Not a worry, not a care
Just Music, Music, Music

Then we played some table games
Our team lost and I got the blame
I always knew I had no talent
For keeping a ball on a spoon in balance

We all dress in shorts and jeans, Feed ourselves on ham and beans;
Happiest days in all our teens
With Music, Music, Music

We then balanced water cups on our heads
If you drop the cup you're really dead Water splashed everywhere
On your clothes and in your hair.

Hours, we sing for hours
And then we make the hills and mountains ring
They fairly tremble when we sing

The very next game was a balloon popping stunt I can't help it if my bottom is blunt
 I tried and tried to pop that balloon
 It finally burst but I felt like a goon

Finally we had a water balloon toss
 As you can guess my team lost
 Not only did I get soppin' wet
 But I couldn't even get in over the net.

After dinner we had a dance
 Some campers stayed while others romanced
 We got to bed late but that wasn't abhorring
 'Cause we got to sleep longer the very next morning

Arrowbear's the place to be Full of Fun and Harmony
 Even when we have K.P., It's Music, Music,
 Music

Dear Diary, August 9

Today is Sunday and our schedule has changed
 We rehearsed in the morning but then things rearranged
 We had a service led by Mr O
 The counselor Sally sang a solo
 That afternoon we all stayed here We watched ping pong champs and gave a cheer
 In the evening we ate our meal outdoors
 We fooled around until we heard the bell roar
 We went inside to hear a musical
 The group that performed was the Vocal Arts Ensemble They're a madrigal group from down in Long Beach
 They sing for a hobby most of them teach
 In the evening before it was time to retire
 We went down to roast marshmallows at the campfire Joining arms we sang with all our might
 And with tears in our eyes we said good night

Dear Diary, August 10

The weekend's over and it's back to the grind We've got to work hard so we don't get behind It was Mr. Hubler's turn to direct What he's doing is hard to detect He does the rumba while up in front
 And during the rests he claps and grunts

Next we had for appreciation From U.S.C. a tenor sensation
 He sang for us "Die Schöne Müllerin" Michael is currently working on his

 Jay Kohorn, Piano

I went to Arrowhead this afternoon
 We shopped around then we left very soon
 We got back to camp in time for dinner
 I went to the nurse, I had a splinter

After our evening rehearsal call We all piled into the dining hall
 We heard music from India for the very first time
 To our ears it seems to have no rhythm or rhyme

Sometime today Fidoa went away Her owner returned
 A little girl, I learned

Our days up here have been very busy
 So much to do, It makes me dizzy I'm so tired at the end of the day
 I could jump into bed and just stay that way

The lecture demonstration on Music of India was given by Dr. Saylor, his son and daughter.

Dear Diary, August 11

Today in rehearsal I watched George Keys
 And all the girls he tries to please
 He flirts with the ladies all the time
 No wonder they can't keep their music in mind

Rehearsal was followed by appreciation Steve Fraser played his 'cello with inspiration I don't know how I ever survived When music appreciation wasn't live

ROMANTIC

Sonata No. 1 - Brahms
 Steve Fraser, 'Cello
 Jay Kohorn, Piano

Then Rick played again on his oboe
 It was a neo-romantic oboe solo
 It sounded a little like a cowboy song But the harmonies were modern though they didn't sound wrong

 It woke us all up with a terrible clang
 We don't know who did it but I have no doubt That when camp is over we'll all find out.

Today was work and not much play
We recorded all morning and rehearsed without delay

I'm glad it's over, but I must say
It was worth the effort anyway

We had a concert so our schedule was tight
We had to dress in a big hurry
All that rushing makes me worry

Dear Diary,

Our work this morning was very steady
We cleaned all day to get camp ready Tonight is our concert and campfire
To make camp beautiful is our desire

The concert was beautiful I must admit I looked to see where my folks would sit I saw them sit in row number three They said they were very proud of me

At the final campfire, Mr. O gave an inspirational address based upon "MISALFI"

After that another camp fire
To say goodbye was our desire
We sang and talked, and the girls bawled
Then Carla sang the Indian Love Call

This word has become a tradition

Finally we heard from Mr O

Then we got up and left to go

THE STAFF

Mr. Arrowbear himself, that's Mr. Fred Ohlendorf. More affectionately known as Mr. O to "his kids", he inspires us all to work towards a goal and at the same time strive for the happiness and joy that life holds. This man is the mastermind of the Arrowbear Kingdom - he is everywhere at once; helping with K P and music theory, taking kids to Blue Jay or Arrowhead, listening to a camper's problem or leading an orchestra. He has just retired from the position of Consultant of Fine Arts in Long Beach and he and Mrs. O will be leaving for a European vacation in late September; but of course we cannot lose Mr. O completely for he will continue to conduct the Long Beach All District Orchestras and the Palos Verdes Peninsula Honor Orchestra. Mr. O is not only well-known to us but he has been recognized in Who's Who In The West. He will always be well-known and well-loved, for all the thousands of former campers, also present and future have a special place for him and Arrowbear in their hearts for him.

Just as important to Arrowbear as honey to a bee is Mrs. Ohlendorf. Besides being in charge of all clerical duties and bookkeeping, this session Mrs. O is the perpetually cheerful mother of some 115 campers and 11 counselors. She has been noted in the Who's Who Of American Women and is a member of the National Music Sorority Mu Phi Epsilon. During the winter she gives piano lessons and all during the year she prepares for the coming summer. Most of her work is completed without our knowledge, but to be sure we would well know it if Mrs. O's efforts weren't present. Right along side of Mr. O is Mrs. O in the special in our hearts.

Mrs. Frances "Sarge" Harding has returned to AMC once again to the delight of the campers. Her touch at inspection, cheerful guidance at music appreciation, and careful instruction in K P are a valuable asset to AMC. She is a counselor-choir teacher at Stephens Junior High in Long Beach. Every year she brings many delightful young people up to camp. Besides being a choir instructor, Sarge is an accomplished basoon player and K P giver and grandmother.

Mr. Philip Ellithorpe, many times known as Mr. "E", is one of our delightful all-camp-choir directors and our beloved concert-choir instructor. Mr. E is up here for his nineteenth year along with his beautiful Irish setter, Sean. Mr. E also received a most exciting phone call as to a future heir: In other words Mr. E is a grandfather of a healthy baby boy! He is the one and only choral instructor at Woodrow Wilson High School in Long Beach and many of his students appear "on the scene" each year here at Arrowbear.

Mr. Don Hubler is our newest all-camp-choir director and also boys ensemble director. He and his lovely wife Maxine came to us from a lovely little place called La Mesa - and Mr. Hubler is Grossmont High School's one and only choir director. He began as a professional concert and opera singer. He later produced local talent shows for service clubs. Mr. Hubler worked his way through Cal State Los Angeles for his credentials. Mrs. Hubler is a teacher's aide for her husband and together they make up a wonderful set of second parents for many of their "kids" at Grossmont High.

This year we are honored to have with us a lovely, capable young RN with two adorable children. Mrs. Phyllis Imamoto, the camp nurse, "freaks out" with young people's infirmities and likewise the young people "freak out" with the wonderful treatment they receive when they visit her office. She's from Harbor City and grew up in Gardena. Now she is RN'ing in the Los Angeles School System. Along with her are her two lovely, lively young-uns, Stacy (9 years) and Gregg (5 years). This is not only a first time for Phyllis but a real impressive first timer for both Stacy and Gregg.

Good-looking, friendly, and a great deal of help around the Kingdom is Mr. Dennis Dockstader. He and Carole recently traveled through Mexico and Latin America to visit the countries of Colombia and Venezuela. They traveled in their own car and found the trip a new and different experience. Besides coaching theory classes, repairing, singing and playing percussion, piano and harpsichord - Dennis is a father-to-be. Planning for this happy event (and for themselves) they have bought some land above Arrowbear for their family expansion.

The brilliant pianist we see accompanying us during all-camp choir and leading the girls' ensemble is Mr. Jay Kohorn. Having just graduated from UCLA with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music, Jay plans on returning to UCLA to study Law. He wishes to save music for the art in his life, but still conducts, accompanies and coaches opera.

This year, Mr Ohlendorf "retired" from most of his official duties in the Long Beach Unified School District. As a gift from many campers, parents, and friends, he received a new John Morley harpsichord which would be used for Baroque concerts and chamber music at Arrowbear during the summer and by chamber music players coached by Mr Ohlendorf at his home during the school year.

KITCHEN STAFF

Although Rick Ohlendorf just graduated from CSCLB with a major in Music (Congrats!), it could well be that he'd just gotten a degree in Gourmet Cooking. Chief Chef Rick is an accomplished oboist who also enjoys working in grease (car grease, that is!). Besides these assorted talents Rick is a conscientious objector - of bad health and poor body condition - he jogs faithfully every evening during all-camp choir.

Our pretty lady cook is Mrs. Carole Dockstader. Having spent her entire life in this atmosphere, she knows all about camp life. This coming January she will bring into the world a new infant to be raised at AMC. She finds living up here year 'round and traveling down to play her flute in the San Bernardino College Quintet (and various other organizations) an ideal situation. She and Dennis also enjoyed their trip to Colombia and Venezuela this last winter and found the better things in life for a cheaper price.

Adding to the kitchen staff is the ever-present Al Ewing. Graduating from Long Beach State this next semester with a Bachelor of Science in Engineering. Also he claims the title of President of Future Farmers of America and the 4H Club. Along with Rick, Al's weird sense of humor and unkind cheerfulness greet us in the morning before breakfast.

Miss In Key Oelschlaeger is AMC'S lady of travel. Having compassed the earth (every continent except South America). This dear lady keeps coming back to AMC to gain still more insight as to the workings of youth. During the school year Miss Oelschlaeger teaches fifth grade at the Good Shepherd Lutheran School in Inglewood.

Head "sanitary engineer" (dish-washer) for this summer is Steve Fraser. Attending Wilson High School in Long Beach this year as a senior, this second generation camper - Kitchen Staff member will be playing his 'cello in the Wilson Honor Orchestra, All-District Senior High Orchestra, and All-Southern Orchestra. Our first glimpse of Steve was with his good-looking beard and mustache, but alas, football and the coach are far more important.

Every girl's dream is loveable Jim Fraser. Another second generation camper - Kitchen Staff member this oboist will be playing first chair in the Jefferson Junior High Orchestra in Long Beach and All-District Junior High Orchestra. Jim will be a ninth grader next year and seeing this is only his third year in camp, we figure on seeing him around many, many more years.

If you see big-footed fifteen year old six footer (or more) walking toward you singing in his basso profundo voice an octave lower than the bass part, then you just know he's our trombone playing John Middlebrooks. He's our call-to-colors dishwasher. A junior at Jordan High in Long Beach, John is a member of the concert, marching, pep, and stage bands - not to mention the Strawhatters and orchestra. Busy John is spending his fifth summer here and for sure there will be many more.

Counselors

Small, but mighty, Vickie Alwinson is another one of our first year counselors, but three previous years as a camper qualify her for any job she might tackle. Vickie graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in Long Beach, has completed one year at Rio Hondo College in Whittier, and plans on attending USC in a year as a second generation student. Although Vickie loves music, plays the piano, and has a beautiful alto-tenor voice, she has chosen psychology as her major and is considering the educational aspects of this field. Her other interests are people, swing, and sleeping late.

Surfing, fishing, and a bad Jewish accent are favorites with counselor Dave Collins. Spending his sixth year up at Arrowbear, Dave has been in charge of the volleyball and ping-pong tournaments and the Saturday relays. After attending City College, Long Beach, for one year he has decided to go to UC San Diego. He had previously been in the City College Chamber Orchestra and Symphony. Being a sophomore, Dave will have yet a little while to decide on his major, but being the fine musician he is we're happy he will continue on the road to happy musicianship.

Lovely soprano, Carla Fillhouer, is one of our counselor-song leaders. A vivacious and active person, she enjoys music, dancing, and sports. She will be graduating in October from the Garden Grove Beauty College, after graduating a year ago from Rancho Alamitos High School under Miss Carol Ulvilden.

Receiving the scholarship for one of the most promising freshman students at Orange Coast College is Jane Franklin, one of our second year counselors here at Arrowbear. After Orange Coast, Janie is planning on attending Long Beach State as a humanities major, for which she will use her AMC counseling experiences as an aid with her contacts with people. Hopefully she would like to teach third grade. After four years as a camper and two years as a counselor, Janie decides she likes watching people.....especially arrowbear-ites. A favorite with her, besides the china she loves and collects, was touring Canada with the Orange Coast Chorale.

One of our other lovely two-year lady counselors is Miss Linda Holbrook. After two years at Chaffey College, Linda has graduated and plans on attending Cal State, Fullerton, in the fall as a music major and would enjoy teaching music on the elementary level. Besides Glee Club and being President of Chaffey's Music Club, Camarata, Linda has done a lot of solo work lately, such as alto lead in Chaffey's production of Kiss Me Kate. She also directed the Chino Job's Daughters Choir this year in California Competition which won second place. We hope Linda will be very happy this coming June as she receives her MRS degree and also that there will be some second generation singers running around AMC in the future.

Our nineteen year old Baritone, "Dino", alias: Glenn Howard, is a first year counselor after three years as an enthusiastic, mischievous, girl-watching camper. He thinks AMC is the greatest, along with the rest of us, and feels honored to be a counselor. After graduating from Wilson High in Long Beach he attended Long Beach City College and is looking forward to either Long Beach State College or San Luis Obispo State for future studies. Our Trolley Counselor, along with Dave Collins, is a sports enthusiast and an avid pool player.

Semi-bearded George Keys is another of our second year counselors. A music major at Cal State Los Angeles, George played in the Symphonic and Pep Bands and sang in the Mixed Chorus. He would very much enjoy leading the life of a happy folk-singer and music-writer. Better known to the girls as our beloved "Camp Cassanova" minus a voice, George is an accomplished musician on the baritone, tenor and alto saxophones.

Sweet, cheerful, and always friendly are only a few of the many things we could say about our talented editor, Kathie Kohorn. She is an eighth year Arrowbearite. Kathie is currently attending City College in Long Beach and is planning on transferring to Cal State Fullerton as a Speech Pathology major. She is intensely interested in children and is currently tutoring a fourth grade non-reader under the Long Beach Community Improvement League.

Kathie is an excellent seamstress and sews all of her clothes. Our lovely, dark-haired Kathie is also a first year counselor and we would all like to take this opportunity to thank her for accepting the great responsibility of editing the Note and for all the time and effort she has put into it.

Pretty soprano, Kathy Lynn, one of our second year counselors, is a music major at Occidental where she participated in the combined Glee Clubs as a second alto. This is the cheery cocoa girl we all see bright and early in the morning, resigned to the task of trying to rid herself of the hot chocolate burden. She is more than interested in music; as with all of our music majors it is her life. Other interests include ecology, social (community) work, and the subject of theology - especially the most interesting eastern religions.

Music is Steve Morgan's middle name. Another two year counselor, Steve is an honor student, majoring in music at the University of Redlands. Spending his fourth year at AMC, he plays the guitar daily for us after meals. He is currently taking trombone, piano, and voice Lessons and is in concert, studio, and marching bands, symphony, concert choir, opera workshop. He also played the part of Eliza Doolittle's father in the musical, My Fair Lady, that Redlands presented. Besides being very interested in the sociological aspects of Rock music, he believes strongly in certain political ideas and is not ashamed to show it. His beautiful smile is one we're hoping to see again.

Last but surely, not least, is our own 22 year old counselor Sally Setterington. Sally just graduated in January from CSCLB and is now working on her Secondary teaching credential in choral music. She spent last semester student teaching under Miss Carol Ulvilden at her alma mater, Rancho Alamitos High School in Garden Grove. This is Sally's first year as a counselor and she hasn't been a camper for five years! She will be substitute teaching in the fall with plenty of spare time for her vocal studies, reading, and sewing.

Dear Diary - (continued from last pages)

Dear Diary,
I had this thing - five days even before camp was over - I know I'm a cry-baby, but I sure will miss those two girls in the Annex from Grossmont - not to mention the

Joan Fuertes

Dear Diary,
Darn my nose - I had three bloody noses in two days and it sure was miserable, but it sure was fun being pampered by my counselor.

Laura Aoki

MORE DEAR DIARY

Dear Diary, Thursday, August 6
You'll never guess what happened.
I finally turned tenor and got to sit with the other guys. Dana Barr

Dear Diary (Wednesday)
My knee has convinced me that I'm not meant for trick dives. Mike P.S. But thank goodness Lynch for trick zippers

Dear Diary, (Monday)
My psychedelic art work is improving rapidly. I can't decide between four job offers I've had: private tutor to Peter Max, animator of the Beatles new full length feature cartoon, art director of the new Fantasia remake, or "head" cartoonist for Abbie Hoffman's new book,
"_____ the _____ Pigs".

John Grouse

Dear Diary, (Tues. a.m.) Aha! Boy, did I put a good one over on my counselor today. I convinced him that I was asleep during the midnight ruckus last night, and got out of K.P.

Gregg Gibbs

P.S. Never give a sucker an even break.

Dear Diary, (Wednesday)
Today my counselor caught me with dirty doggie joke stationery. So far I'm the only guy in the dorm guilty of circulation of pornography.
David Asbury

Dear Diary, (Tuesday)
Today I was violently attacked and thrown into my bunk by a vicious counselor. Maybe he'll make a regular thing of it.

Dan Hute

Dear Diary,
Again and again I must suffer the indignities of the mortal masses for I have been stricken down from my ethereal position.

Richard Hecker

Dear Diary
Today I dazzled another throng of envious onlookers with my magic fingers. (Van Cliburn has nothing on me).

Don Harvie

Dear Diary, (Monday p.m.) Tonight I was caught red-handed in my wet bed. Glenn had no sympathy for me. I am forced to blame it on Alex's inability to control himself. Mike Hardy

Dear Diary,
What a wonderful surprise to have that clever and enchanting Alex Johnson sleeping across from me.
The dorm midnite choir is in such able hands.

Jeff Henson

Dear Diary, (Monday)
I'm trying desperately to rid myself of a very ungraceful bunk partner. Greg Nettler

Dear Diary, (Fri.-Fri. & Sat.)
Am being Harrassed by an over-protective counselor and he's ruining my love life.

Dave Stankiewicz

Dear Diary, (Monday)
I'm positive now that there's a plot to destroy me. Today my bunk was sabotaged before inspection and yesterday I was mercilessly persecuted by an angry mob while incapacitated by a raging headache. Gary Woodling

Dear Diary, (Saturday)
Today I had the golden opportunity to avenge myself upon my tyrannical counselor. While he was sleeping soundly, I mustered my finest FF sneeze and sent him crashing through the ceiling. Alex Johnson

Dear Diary, (Sunday)
Today in an unparalled combined effort we made a noble attempt to defeat our counselors George and Steve in one of the famous rest-period guitar wars.
Vernon Lintvedt and Randall Smith

Dear Diary, (Monday)
After an exhaustive scientific research project, I have made the monumental discovery that surplus Army jackets will not suffice as comfortable pillows.

Jim McGuinness

Dear Diary, (Monday)
Today I was rudely awakened during rest period when I was caught in deadly tear gas crossfire.

Joe McDaniels

Eugene Langlois

Dear Diary, (Tuesday)

I'm beginning to realize that the object of one of my strongest Freudian fixations is my wine skin.

Steve Johnson

Dear Diary, (Sunday p.m.)

All around rhythmically pulsating bedsprings are creating uniquely syncopated percussion patterns.

John Fausett

Dear Diary, (Sat - Sat)

This year I am enjoying the rewards of a quiet introspective existence.
I have found it infinitely more fruitful than walking around methodically attempting to sicken everyone.

Clarence Knutson

P.S. My counselors even like me better.

And then there's the story of Valerie Hall

Now this little kid is really a ball

To look at her you'd think she's not so tall

But to see her on her bed would make you pall.

All her things that are of great cost

Were not the things that Cindy lost

It would seem that her life at Arrowbear

Has given her ideas of what not to wear. (Cindy Hollinger)

Melinda is a sporty girl

Who wanted to give this camp a whirl

she thought that it would be a breeze Until she remembered she was allergic to pine trees.

(Melinda Anderson)

In Cabin I there's a girl named Marion

But she is definitely not a librarian I've never seen but I've heard tell Her ballet dancing is really swell.

(Marion Trainor)

And then there's the strange case of Kathie Foote

It seems that people can't read her name

People call her footie just for a game

And tootie when in a fit of rage they want her to put (poetic license, folks)

Karen is a girl who's seldom seen.
So it's not known that her fetish is to be clean

The reason then that she's seldom seen

Is that she's always gone washing her jeans. (KAREN PORTER)

Now how do you feel about Chatty Kathy

I tell you the kid is really daffy.

A gelusil and a lot of milk there And a broken sleeping bag leave her bare. (Kathy Pinney)

Jody is a girl with a lot of hair Who would I imagine take almost any dare

She's is very pretty and is noticed wherever she goes

And attracts many boys in camp as everyone knows. (Jody Reeves)

Claudia is a girl who who's affected with a blight

She can't ever seem to find her tiny flashlight

And it seems that many times during the night

A huge mosquito does her bite

(Claudia Wilson)

Dear Diary,

My counselor thinks it's weird that I wear my glasses all the time but I know that if I take them off, I'll miss something.

Nancy Billing

Dear Diary,

I find the boys at Arrowbear so amusing. I really like to have them around. But for some sad reason the games they enjoy, I can't dig. (Jo Glidewell)

Dear Diary,

Coming to camp late and getting a bottom bunk really doesn't bother me at all because I only stand two feet from the ground anyway.

Sally Beckham

Dear Diary,
I'm such a sneaky fellow! Ha- haha! I left my bunk while my counselor was telling a story- tee hee hee - A-A-A-A-A-A-A-H!

Dick Glenn

Dear Diary,
Being such a goof-off as I am it sure does upset me that I have a tough counselor. Scott Tipton

Dear Diary,
Our little Pam Renner's not a piece of trash

But we're afraid she'll get a rash
By sitting in the trash can each night

To watch the slumber music sight.

Dear Diary,
"Loose Lips" Tennant has more fan mail than anyone in camp;
The Playboy Club and Al Capone - are letters to her sent.
In certain circles she's known as Gypsy Rose,
But we've never seen her dawn her pose!

Dear Diary,
Karen Diesslin has the supreme decision to make after getting into bed. Do I sleep with my glasses on my head since I'm too lazy to get up again?!

Dear Diary,
Teresa Brown makes sure she's always at her best.
She's the only one in the dorm who actually sleeps during rest.

Dear Diary,
Noelle Varner believes in always being polite,
So,---no matter what time her counselor sneaks in, Noelle will say
" good night".

Dear Diary,
Pam is the least sporty of the dorms' sporty King twins.
In fact she's often found resting with her Pogo plastic toy friends.

Dear Diary,
Rumor has it that Pat King can't find enough to do, But her counselors can find toilets to clean, just to help her through

Dear Diary,
The dorm beauty queen is truly supreme.
Ina Inouye may make it to bed on time, but half the night she spends rolling her hair.

Dear Diary,
Becky Edles is the only champ that the dorm can claim
And of course ping pong is her game.
But she lost to the men Did she do it on purpose? It isn't a sin.

Dear Diary,
Little Angel Teri Arihara arose one morn to find A temptation to hard to resist....
Dianne Ishimine's behind.

Dear Diary,
Some say water's as sweet as sugar cane
Some say it's hard as a down pour of rain
But the water at Arrowbear gives Eleanor Egenias a pain.

Dear Diary,
Linda Zatzius has a problem Seems she can't always find her pajama bottom.

Dear Diary,
Rosie Esquivel so petite, so proper,
so prim
Trips over her pajama hem on the way to Journey's End.

Melody Clark our camp flutist Parades to the shower almost every morn as a nudist.

Dear Diary,
Mighty mouth Marti (Wheeler) Means more to most Making each moment
Magically maddeningly mangled.

Dear Diary,
Today Eric read a love letter to me from Don. Brenda Aoki

Dear Diary,
Poor Evelyn (Frerks) doesn't know how to multiply. She spent most of rest period counting all of the squares on the springs of Karen's bed.

Dear Diary,

Denise Goodman is very rare
It takes her hours to set her hair Thirty minutes after taps, Denise still winds and wraps.

There's this girl who plays piano She sometimes sings alto and sometimes soprano Jennifer Endter is the name of this gal

She accompanies advanced girls and she sure does swell.

Teri O'Neill is really dumb
She sleeps at night with her glasses on
Not just once, she did it twice
But even so she's very nice.

Judy Franklin is always cold She needs two blankets more I'm told.
She sleeps outside on the porch of the dorm
And her counselor makes sure she's nice and warm.

Being physically prepared Is one thing Kim Tomlinson hasn't spared.
She does her leg lifts after taps
Is she limber yet perhaps.

Mav Cennamo sure is dumb - She went to bed with her glasses on And in the morning the dog threw up Right on top of her bag and bunk.

Ann Goodwin runs around at nite
Her counselor's sleeping bag in hand An ear in tune, an eye alert - In case she has to hit the dirt.

Carol Castro goes to shower Smelling like an unbloomed flower Forgetting all her things of need She ends up looking like a seed.

Val Roelfsema is alive at nite
The counselor hears her clear alright
She talks as if she's wide awake And knows about the noise she makes.

Lori Ronca's a real pro
She thinks she's another football
"Joe"

Throwing jujubes across the porch
To the person who thinks she's Lori's coach.

Nancy Eastman sits and cries When something weird gets in her eyes

Her contacts are supposed to help Although sometimes they make her yelp.

Judy Harvey and Beth Burdine are snobs of Grossmont High This they said to us the nite the Annex began to cry
But aren't those sweet and lovely gals
Two of the most congenial pals?

Lynn Morris is a lot of fun
She sure can play the accordian It's true she's modest, this is so She really loves to play it tho'.

Judy Cohen's a honey bear Always bouncing everywhere
She loved that clumsy pup named Fido
Who slept on her bunk three nites in a row.

ANON

Dear Diary,
Today I finally learned to turn pages quickly - thanks to my counselor. Scott Beardsley

Dear Diary, (Thursday, Aug 4) Today I found out what misery it is to have a bunk that's six inches too short. Chuck Wooten

Dear Diary,
Heck! Jay caught me with candy wrappers under my bunk today and gave me a 3 on my bunk.
Bill Hershey

Dear Diary,
Today my sneaky bunk partner tried to hide candy wrappers under the bunk and we both ended up getting K.P. Chris Christiansen

Dear Diary,
Oh how I long for those piston rods - spark plugs and cam shafts.
Bob Driggs

Dear Diary,
Today a girl counselor gave me K P and my own counselor backed her up.
Is there no place I can turn?
Jack Weis

Dear Diary,
For some reason the kids here at camp think I'm Filipino. I can't seem to convince them I'm Greek.

Dominica Pimentel

Dear Diary,
When my resistance was low I attacked George only to find myself in the pool as a result of his overpowering affection.

Debbie Dickson

Dear Diary,
I no longer have to worry about Tarzan's persistence because I finally cut his vine.

Frances Reynolds

Dear Diary,
Today was my birthday! Boy did I have fun. First the girls in the cabin sang happy birthday to me after reveille, then I had a cake in the dining hall, I then did a little dance for my counselor with Jody and Kathie sans blouses.

Beth Walker

Dear Diary, (August 12)
I've finally figured out why I'm speechless during the day and so worn out. I've been told I'm quite a conversationlist in my sleep.

Bevan Edwards

Dear Diary, (Aug 11)
I've got it finally. How to beat K.P.! You find a gullible girl and exchange K.P.'s. She does yours, you promise hers. - Sneaky HUH?

Allen Brown

P.S. I'll repay Jody in another way.

Dear Diary, (August 12)
I don't know when Allen will ever give up. I give him a little break and let him win and he goes all out.
I now finance the poor boy.

Steve Perez

Dear Diary (August 10)
You know how I like to twist in my bunk for enjoyment. Well can you believe I got K.P. for it? What a bummer in the summer!

Mike Kaminaka

Dear Diary, (August 12)
Can you dig this? I was chosen as Best Camper of A.M.C. - What if my counselor had told of my pillow fight with Steve?!-John Rhynerson

Dear Diary, (August 11)
How glad I was for my baseball game down the hill - between the noise in the Trolley and my Mad magazine I think it was starting to affect me. Larry French

Dear Diary, (Aug. 6-16)
(between 1 and 2 p.m.)
Between the rolling on top by my bunk partner and watching the bees on my counselor's toes when does a guy get some sleep. Don Hecker

Dear Diary, (Aug. 7 -10:30 p.m.) I guess I excited the Trolley in a small but showful way last night.
I got myself tangled up in my underwear and had to make an emergency change. I was told it was the first in A.M.C.

Bill Corson

P.S. I'm now convinced boxers are a better make.

Dear Diary (Aug 8 - 10:00)
I escaped with Brenda from the dance to the main bridge. We then attempted, but failed, to proceed to my car to ??. Eric Lowe P.S. Those Lousy Counselors!

Dear Diary, (August 12)
What am I without my mustache?
And what is my mustache without its wax? Bill Crowell

Dear Diary,
Not only am I a tenor called Tarzan, but I am also an Hercules!
Bill Davis

P.S. What next?

Dear Diary,
I just can't win! Me with my sinus problems and I have to pick the one out of about 65 girls who has strep throat. Bob Watson P.S. Davina, I won't mind yours if you don't mind mine!

Dear Diary,
I almost had a bunk to myself until Scott Tipton moved in today.
Rich Olson

Dear Diary,
I don't know what is ailing me but I have this compulsion to squirm all the time. Rod Haubrock

Dear Diary,
We have another counselor in the dorm besides Sally and Jane. Only this one is our make-up and dress advisor rather than a social advisor.

Teri Cook

Sweet and silent Cindy (LaFortune)
Very seldom gripes
'Cept when Sarge discovers dust
On the sill of the window Cindy's too weak to unlock.

Dear Diary,
I wish I knew what to do about my problem - I find myself faking to be asleep to keep people from driving me crazy. Laura West

Dear Diary,
I never seem to make it to rest period until it's over. (I think I'm getting insomnia).

Melinda Hornby

Dear Diary,
I'm going to have to learn to smile because I'm getting tired of talking to get my point across.

Linda Gimmy

Dear Diary,
Mary Lou always seemed to drag me along until she met Glenn - now I have to find another reason for my aches and pains. Nancy Wilson

Dear Diary,
My mother sent my size 11½ ice skates but my only problem is finding a place big enough to store them here. Davina Cave

Dear Diary,
I'm finding that guys don't talk to me much but only look at me with wandering Eye. Why?

Gerolyn Fillhouer

Dear Diary,
Guess what - I'm the head of the T.P. gang on the dorm porch and it's a blast! Counselor Kathie got it first. Joanna Endter

Dear Diary,
Boy it sure is funny to see the faces of my friends when I read to them out of my books. Too bad they're not dirty. Kathy Kobayashi

I made it around the skating rink six times today at Blue Jay! Whee - does it feel great- Cindi Penrose

Dear Diary,
Today she "came back to me" - oh happy days! Russ Montooth

Dear Diary,
Today I learned a beautiful new "melodie". Steve Aiken

I don't know what's wrong with me
- every night when the moon rises my teeth grow into long fangs, my hair grows six inches and my ears get pointed - Grrrr!

Mike Howard

Dear Diary,
Suzon Bowdle is very sweet She's rather quiet and very petite
But when she gets a telephone call There's no way to calm her down at all.

Dear Diary,
Pam Hicks is always the first one to rise

She puts on her makeup while in bed she lies
Most of the time she makes not a sound
But she lets out a scream if a bee comes around.

Dear Diary,
Joanne Endter, to her delight Got to sleep under the stars one night

The stars did twinkle and the moon shone bright
And she liked it so much she did the same the next night

Dear Diary,
Susanne Sterling was unaware that she needed some dresses to wear
But imagination; she's got lots And she makes do with a pair of culottes.

Dear Diary,
Karen McKay is a counselor's delight

She's the first one in bed and asleep at night She's never a problem - she does everything right
Her manner is quiet and very polite.

Dear Diary,
I really enjoy sleeping with a sweat shirt over my P J's - it's great fun - and it's sure warm.

Maureen Takade

Dear Diary,
I find my counselor very annoyed with me. I just can't seem to leave her alone. Mary Lou Monte

At this time I would like to express my sincere appreciation for the never-ending co-operation that was given me by Vicki Alwinson, and Jay Kohorn.

A special thanks goes to Mrs O. for giving her free time to the typing and editing of the Note
