

Slow Arrowbear Song

Sung to the tune of “Edelweiss” from the 1959 musical, “The Sound of Music” – music and lyrics by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein.

Three kitchen staff workers, Betsy Osborne, K.C. Still, and Donna Fekjar, wanted to contribute to Skit Night along with the campers. They composed these alternate lyrics to the well-known tune, having no idea that their version would become part of the camp repertoire sung by current campers every summer.

Arrowbear, Arrowbear
We're so happy to be here
Where we share with those who care
Music and friendships so dear
Mountain air magic fills heart and soul
Clear bright skies so blue
Arrowbear, Arrowbear
We'll be sorry to leave you.
